Special to the APPEAL

Eight Murderers.

Chestertown, Md., October 28.—Eight negroes on trial for the murder of Dr. Hill were declared guilty this morning. The verdict was received with wild approval and applause. One named Potts was not convicted. There were threats that the men would be lynched, but the Judge appealed to the crowd not to carry out the threat and said that they would be amenable to the law. The Sheriff was instructed to summon a posse to protect the prisoners.

The Bridge Fell.

Pineville, Ky., October 28.—The false work of the bridge being constructed over the Cumberland river at this place collapsed and five workmen were thrown into the river fifty feet below. E. K. Hickox, of Wymouth, O., was killed and F. Chassey of the same place. Arthur A. Wyland of Brunswick and Joseph Haskins and H. W. Licklighter of this city were seriously injured.

A Woman's Terrible Death.

Another Strike.

New York, Oct. 28.—Over seven hundred wire men of the Electrical Workers' Union went out on a strike today because the contractors employed non-union men.

The hearse was followed by carriages containing 10 visiting priests from surrounding parishes, and members of the Y. M. I. acted as pall bearers.

Father Carl of Reno delivered the funeral sermon at the church and the V. R. Father Lynch of Virginia City conducted the services at the grave.

Many friends came down from Virginia City to assist in the last sad rites and lay the remains to rest.

Oregon's Governor Speaks.

The nominations of Harrison and Cleveland, of like principles and policy upon questions, by opposing political parties, is quite an anomaly in the political world. Both favor the tariff as the great source of revenue, both oppose the free coinage of silver, and both are in favor of bank money. They are the twin serfs of Wall street, and like a pair of faithful old stags are really under the same yoke ploughing the national summer fallow for the hire of the plutocrats. But fortunately for the country a new party has entered into the political arena, in antagonism to both of the old parties. Instead of raising the bulk of the national revenue by tariff taxation, which falls with unjust and unequal weight upon the labor and industries of the country, it would transfer the bulk of the burden, by an income tax, to the wealth of the nation, where it justly belongs. Instead of having a single gold basis for the national currency, it would restore the bi-metallic basis of our fathers, by the equal coinage of silver with gold and by its investiture with full legal tender qualities.

Stewart and Dubois.

The Tribune of last evening under eight badly written display heads publishes a letter from Senator Dubois of Idaho to William Woodburn of this city in which Senator Stewart is styled as a "common scold" and a detriment to silver. It reads like a wail from a man drowning in the sea while attempting to float on the fictitious edge of a derelict soda cracker.

There is only one reason Mr. Dubois has for his malignant attack upon Senator Stewart: it is simply this: Dubois ran for Senator in Idaho two years ago and dragged so much money business into his campaign that Wm. Cleggott, his opponent, who is also an old Nevada, contested his seat and Wm. M. Stewart conducted Mr. Cleggott's case for him. Stewart showed Dubois up in his true colors and tore the mask from his face. Of course Dubois don't like Stewart and takes every occasion to abuse him as in the above instance. Whenever Stewart makes a silver move Dubois gets black in the face, for if there is any one he don't like to tupper with it is free coinage of silver, as his heart is with Wall street.

Dubois gave his hand away in this one paragraph:

"I have snatched a little time from the campaign to drop you the enclosed lines. If it will do you any good, use it in any way you see fit."

A Calamity Howl.

Echoing from the grave of the greatest of American Presidents are these words:

"As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war. God grant that my suspicions may be groundless."

Soon after uttering this dark prophecy, Abraham Lincoln's lips grew dumb; but his freed spirit flew to join the "Ghost Dance" of immortals whose steps move to the music of the "Marseilles Hymn" and "John Brown's Body."

We take genuine pride in applying to our new abolition movement the words of our enemies, "Calamity Howl" and "Ghost Dance." Let the dance go on.

Stipped.

On next Thursday evening Fowler Warrington's Company of comedians with Charley Hagan, Budd Ross, Geo. A. Booker, E. S. Tarr, Lida Wells, Lizzie Ingles, Estelle Clinton, Augusta Martine and other equally well-known artists, are to appear at the Opera House in that funniest of farcical comedies "Stipped by the Light of the Moon," and all who desire to pass a pleasant evening and exercise dull care should not fail to be present and witness the many good things served up in this ne plus ultra of funny plays. The laughter begins two minutes after the curtain rises and does not stop until it falls upon the third and last act, and it is safe to say that those who fail to see "Stipped" will miss more fun than they will be able to derive from any other source in a long time.

ALL SORTS.

Postmaster Rodman is improving. The Stowaway Company is the best that has played here for a long time.

Did Bartine make any remarks in this campaign that were distributed among the silver men of four States?

Miss Dolly McCone of Virginia City, was in Carson yesterday to attend the funeral of Father Sheridan.

Miss Lizzie Donnell, daughter of Major Grimsby, who was killed in the Indian war of 1831, is visiting friends in Carson.

Divine services in the M. E. church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

Henry Pearce, Pastor.

The people don't want any suppositions in regard to any candidates attitude. He must come right up to the front and declare himself pro or con.

The election of Stewart Newlands and Weaver electors is now conceded even in the State Capitol where two months ago it was the signal to laugh at the silver men when any one of them was mentioned.

It is now stated that Henry Vane Milbank died from a shock of prostration, brought on by the loss of an opportunity to challenge a woman's husband to fight him a duel. He had engaged in 31 duels in his life time and never killed a man.

General Postening returned from the Eastern part of the State last evening. He says there is virtually but one party and that is the Silver party in the eastern part of the State. He would not speak in Eureka out respect to the memory of Mrs. Harrison. Journal.

The Colorado state silver league have printed 50,000 copies of Senator Stewart's Virginia City speech and will distribute it this week through Colorado, Montana and Idaho. Yet men who claim to be silver men are trying to strike him down in his own home, but they can't do it. Denver News.

The Stowaway company played to a good house last night, and after Spike Hennessy illustrated how easy it was for him to crack a safe the Republican sack bearers put a guard on their safe till morning. They don't want any of that money touched till after election—when they will use it themselves.

A good many young men in Nevada are out of work at the present time, and still they are willing to do any honest work to make a living. They all have the power of the ballot box, however, and they should exercise it at the polls November 8. Vote for nothing but silver men, boys, and it won't be many years before Nevada will prosper as of old and the dismantled hoisting works and abandoned mines will ring with the clank of machinery and the sound of the pick tearing silver from the earth and tossing it into the U. S. Mint at $1.20 per ounce.

The Inevitable Result.

[Aspen Times (Ind.)]

Close the silver mines and the over $40,000,000 invested in mining and smelting machinery would be lost. Close the silver mines and smelters and the value of real estate and building investments would depreciate at least 50 per cent, which would mean a loss of $112,702,648. And while it is impossible to compute the cost of silver mining, there being so many different features of expense connected with it at one place that do not arise in others, mine operators tell us that they cannot operate their properties with silver below $1 an ounce, and the closing of their mines furnish evidence of the truth of their statements.
